Mawi International LLC. (“Mawi Cardiac Service” or “We”) respects your privacy and we are committed to protecting it through our compliance with this policy. This policy describes the types of information we may collect from you or that you may provide when you visit the website www.mawicardio.com (our “Website”) and our Mawi Cardio App (our “App”) for collecting, using, maintaining, protecting, and disclosing that information.

This policy applies to information we collect on our Website or App and from electronic messages between you and our Website or App. This policy does not apply to information collected by (i) us offline or through any other means, including through any other website operated by Mawi Cardiac Service or any third party; or (ii) any third party (including our affiliates), including through any application or content that may link to or be accessible from our Website or App.

Please read this policy carefully to understand our policies and practices regarding your information. By accessing or using our Website or App, you agree to this policy. If you do not agree with our policies and practices, your choice is not to use our Website or App.

Information We Collect About You

We collect several types of information from and about users of our Website or App, including information:

- by which you may be personally identified, such as name, postal address, e-mail address, telephone number, or any other identifier by which you may be contacted online or offline (“personal information”);
- that is about you but individually does not identify you, such as information about your internet connection, the equipment you use to access our Website or App, and usage details.

Information You Provide to Us

The information you provide to us on or through our Website or App may include:

- Information you provide by filling in forms on our Website or App, including information provided at the time of registering to use our Website or App or requesting content or information made available on or through our Website or App.
- Information we request when you report a problem with our Website or App.
- Correspondence or other communications, including e-mail addresses, that you may send to us through our Website or App.

Information We Collect Through Automatic Data Collection Technologies

As you navigate through and interact with our Website or App, we may collect, through automatic data collection technologies, certain information about your equipment, browsing actions, and patterns to improve our Website or App and deliver a better and more personalized service. The information we collect automatically may also include personal information.

The technologies we use for this automatic data collection may include:

- Cookies (or browser cookies). A cookie is a small file placed on the hard drive of your computer. You may refuse to accept browser Cookies by activating the appropriate setting on your browser. However, if you select this setting you may be unable to access certain parts of our Website or App. Unless you have adjusted your browser setting so that it will refuse cookies, our system will issue cookies when you direct your browser to our Website or App.
- Flash Cookies. Certain features of our Website or App may use local stored objects (or Flash cookies) to collect and store information about your preferences and navigation to, from, and on our Website or App. Flash cookies are not managed by the same browser settings as are used for browser cookies.
- Web Beacons. Pages of our Website may contain small electronic files known as web beacons (also referred to as clear gifs, pixel tags and single-pixel gifs) that permit Mawi Cardiac Service, for example, to count users who have visited those pages and for other related website statistics (for example, recording the popularity of certain website content and verifying system and server integrity).

Third-party Use of Automatic Data Collection Technologies

Some content or applications, including advertisements, on our Website or App, are served by third parties, including advertisers, ad networks and servers, content providers, and application providers. These third parties may use cookies alone or in conjunction with web beacons or other tracking technologies to collect information about you when you use our Website or App. The information they collect may be associated with your personal information or they may collect information, including personal information, about your online activities over time and across different websites and other online services. They may use this information to provide you with interest-based (behavioral) advertising or other targeted content.

We do not control these third parties tracking technologies or how they may be used. If you have any questions about an advertisement or other targeted content, you should contact the responsible provider directly.

How We Use Your Information

We may use information that we collect about you or that you provide to us, including any personal information:

- To present our Website or App and its contents to you.
- To provide you with information, products, or services that you request from us.
- To fulfill any purpose for which you provide such information.
- To carry out our obligations and enforce our rights arising from any contracts entered into between you and Mawi Cardiac Service.
- For Mawi Cardiac Service's internal business purposes.
- In any other way, we may describe when you provide the information.
- For any other purpose with your consent.

Disclosure of Your Information

We may disclose aggregated information about our users and information that does not identify any individual without restriction. We may disclose your personal information:

- To our affiliates, contractors, service providers, and other third parties we use to support our business.
- To a buyer or other successor in the event of a merger, divestiture, restructuring, reorganization, dissolution, or other sale or transfer of some or all of Mawi Cardiac Service's assets, whether as a going concern or as part of bankruptcy, liquidation, or similar proceeding, in which personal information held by Mawi Cardiac Service about Website users is among the assets transferred.

- To fulfill any purpose for which you provide such information.
- For any other purpose disclosed by us when you provide the information.
- To comply with any court order, law or legal process, government or regulatory request.
- To enforce or apply our terms of use www.mawicardio.com/terms_of_use and other agreements between you and Mawi Cardiac Service.
- If we believe disclosure is necessary or appropriate to protect the rights, property, or safety of Mawi Cardiac Service, our affiliates, customers, or service providers.
- For any other purpose with your consent.

Accessing and Correcting Your Information

You may request access to, correction, or destruction of any personal information that you have provided to us to the extent that any such request would not violate any law or legal requirement or cause the information to be incorrect.

Data Security

We have implemented measures designed to secure your personal information from accidental loss and from unauthorized access, use, alteration, and disclosure.

Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure.

Although we use commercially reasonable efforts to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee the security of your personal information transmitted to our Website or App. Any transmission of personal information is at your own risk. We are not responsible for any party's circumvention of any privacy settings or security measures contained on our Website or App.

Changes to Our Privacy Policy

We may change this policy from time to time. Your continued use of our Website or App after we make changes is deemed to be acceptance of those changes, so please check the policy periodically for updates. It is our policy to post any changes we make to this policy on this page with a notice that the policy has been updated on our Website or App home page. If we make material changes to how we treat our users' personal information, we will notify you through a notice on our Website or App home page. The date the policy was last revised is identified at the top of the page. You are responsible for periodically visiting our Website or App and this policy to check for any changes.
